PRELUDE

INVOCATION

^ OPENING HYMN "All Glory, Laud, and Honor"

Pastor

UMH #280

LITANY

Liturgist

Liturgist: Hosanna, the Child of David!

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord!

People: What is this strange procession? Why are people so excited?

Liturgist: The prophet has come! No, more than a prophet,

One who brings the kingdom of God into our midst!

People: But he does not look regal, but rather awkward;

riding on a teetering colt is not exactly awe-inspiring to me.

Liturgist: Don't let your eyes fool yourselves; the kingdom of God does not come with observation, but comes with power.

People: Will the kingdom bring changes that I will regret?

What will it cost to take this One seriously?

^ EXCHANGE OF PEACE

May the Peace of the living Christ be with you.

And also with you. Amen.

(We greet and share the Peace that Christ gives.)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Together

Liturgist: Let us pray.

Our hearts are not empty, but full of selfish desires, O God. We are too full of our boasts to hear Your small voice. We struggle for the seat of honor, but pass on the role of a servant. Help us become leaders through servanthood. Forgive us, we pray...

(We pray in silence individually.)

Liturgist: Your sins are forgiven in Jesus' name.

People: Your sins are also forgiven; glory to God. Amen.

^ PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Together

We offer these gifts with glad hearts, O God. Open our ears and hearts to You bidding. Open our eyes to see the plight of our neighbors. Loosen our hands, so that we might speak with our action. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

5. A note from the church financial secretary and treasurer:
For those who have wondered how to get their pledges, tithes and offerings to the church, we have this advice. You can mail them to the church on Saturdays or drop them off at the church office using the office mail slot on Mondays or Tuesdays. This allows for the offerings to be deposited right away and not subject to potential theft. Checks are preferred over cash based on CDC guidelines.
